Re: Picatinny Federal Credit Union
v. Federal National Mortgage Association
Consolidated Civil Action No. 09-01295 (JAG)

Dear Chief Judge Brown:

Pursuant to Local Civil Rule 7.2(b), I write on behalf of plaintiff Picatinny Federal Credit Union and defendant Federal National Mortgage Association ("Fannie Mae") to extend by ten pages the page limitation of the parties' briefs in opposition to their motions for summary judgment in this matter. Under the Court's Seventh Amended Scheduling Order dated November 1, 2010, the parties in the Picatinny action are required to file their opposition to the pending summary judgment motions by January 31, 2011.

The need for this extension arises from the fact that the parties requested and received the Court's permission to submit initial briefs in support of their summary judgment motions that exceeded the page limitation by ten pages. Both parties then submitted briefs that, in the absence of an extension, exceeded the page limitations of this Court. To address the arguments raised in the initial briefs that exceeded the normal page limitations, the parties require this additional page extension.

I appreciate the Court's consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES H. FORTE
